Italian Performance Cruiser with Low Engine Hours

The Cerri 52 combines elegant Italian styling, excellent seaworthiness and the reliability of a shaft-drive configuration. Featuring only 476 / 467 engine hours, extensive recent mechanical works and a comprehensive maintenance history, this yacht represents a compelling opportunity in today's market.

Powered by twin MAN 800 HP diesel engines, she delivers cruising speeds of approximately 28 knots and a maximum speed of 32 knots, making her ideal for comfortable Mediterranean cruising.

Professionally maintained and recently serviced, the yacht benefits from significant investments in both propulsion and mechanical systems, offering peace of mind to her next owner.
